

Republic of The Sudan
Ministry of Minerals

Sudanese Mineral Resources Company

S M R C

SMRC

The Sudanese mineral resources company (SMRC) was established in 2014, and works under the auspices of Ministry of Minerals. It has the authority to organize and controlled the Companies that work and invest in the mining sector according to the regulations.

It has developed strategies and high quality. Standard to manage mining sector within the frame work of the minerals wealth and mines development act 2015.

Mission:

To implement the mining polices in mining sector and to apply the international Standard in mining industry.

Objective :

- To increase the per capita income by developing the mining sector.
- To denationalize of the mining industry and bring the best modern systems.
- To develop the programs of social responsibility.
- To adopt the principle of public safety and environmental friendly technologies.
- To develop the scientific researches and studies in mining sector.

Companies in the Exploration Phase:

General directorate, supervisory and control of exploration companies is considered of the basic companies of the SMRC. Oversees all companies operating in the exploration stages and small mining starts in the exploration phase, beside the functions of the control and supervision of the companies in the exploration and study fields, and studies plans and analyses them using advanced information technology and software systems and the consolidation of quality...as well as oversees the 130 companies in various stages of exploration, in addition to a large number of small mining companies. To all operation Companies in the mining Sector and direct Supervision to all mining producing.

Mining & producing companies:

The SMRC through the general directorate, supervisory and control company (technical, financial and administrative productivity control to all operating companies in the mining sector), and direct supervision to all mining producing

Tailing processing companies:

The processing of tailing coming from artisanal mining activities consider as one of the important sector of the mining producing companies, which shares a wide space in the public mining productivity mining, the SMRC operates across General directorate for the supervision and control of the (production companies) - waste management production companies , it operates in the rationing and organization of work address artisanal mining remnants of more than 63 companies to the number of companies producing treatment and make the most of the artisanal mining waste to take advantage of productivity taking into account the environment and public safety laws. The future vision for this sector is to developing the artisanal mining waste treatment to the concession sector in the near future.

Small Mining Companies:

SMRC devoted a separate General Directorate to Supervisory and Control of the small mining companies that have licenses for the extraction of minerals with a number of 189 companies spread all over the country, these companies operate in mining of a lot of mineral ores.

Artisanal Mining:

SMRC throw the general Directorate Supervisory and Control of artisanal Mining, Formalize, organized and development the artisanal mining to be the first in per capita income, besides rationing all the artisanal mining operations conducted in all parts of the country.

Safety & Environment:

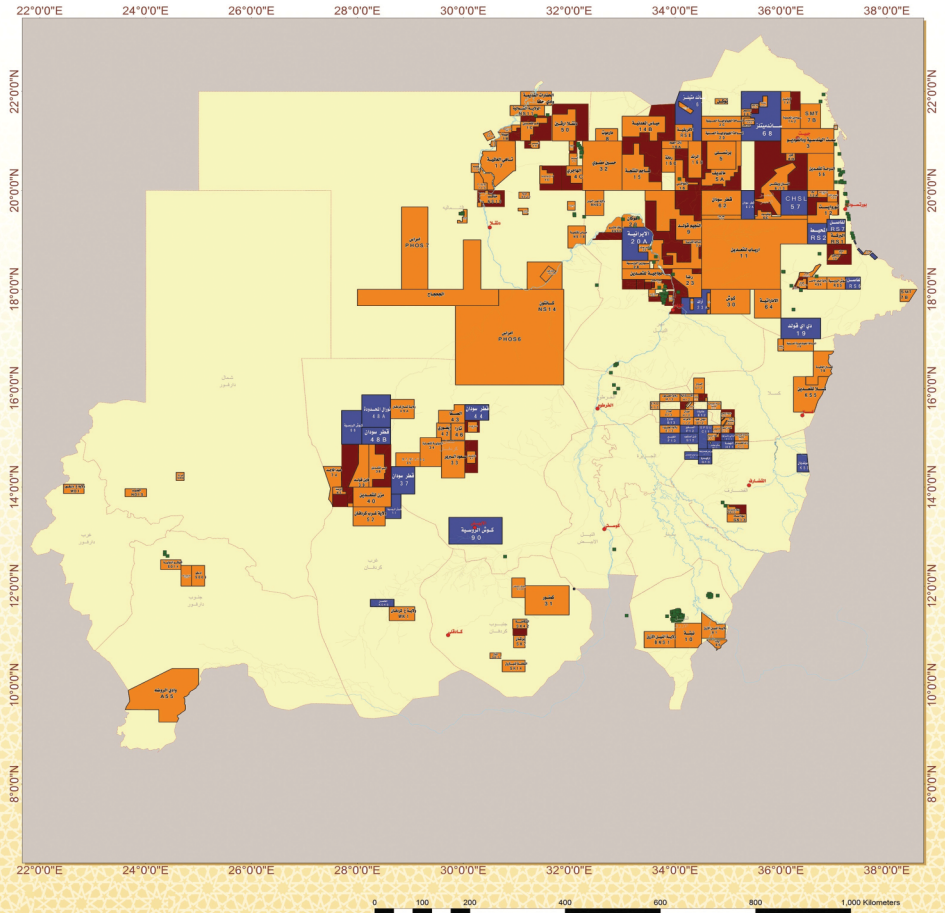

SMRC operates across general directorate of HSE & CSR for the supervision and control of safety & environment in mining sector

Social Responsibility:

For the development of local communities backed up by service projects ... and to promote and increase awareness of the principles and values of social responsibility and dissemination among the corporate sector and cooperate between the community, the company and local authorities: that positively reflected on the local community.

Distributions of Mining Companies Blocks

Sudanese Mineral Resources Company

Sudan- Khartoum - Arkaweet-Block No.56B- building No.331

Tel: +249 155665254 - +249 154872207

www.smrc.sd-info@smrc.sd